HONOUR FOR HON. MR. H. E. POLLOCK.

Elevated to the Rank of Knighthood.

FITTING REWARD FOR PUBLIC SERVICE.

The whole Colony will, we are sure, join with us in extending our heartiest and most sincere congratulations to the Hon. Mr. Henry Edward Pollock, K.C., on his elevation to the honour of a Knighthood. The inclusion of his name in H. M. the King's Birthday Honours—first represents a fitting, if somewhat tardy, recognition of public services rendered in the Colony for very many years. Sir Henry Pollock, as he will now be styled, is in truth to be described as Hongkong's best-known public man. As an unofficial member of the Executive and Legislative Councils and a prominent official of many public bodies he has served the community unstintingly for many years, and the honour now bestowed upon him has been more than earned. Always the champion of public interests, his speeches in the Legislative Council have been marked by sympathy with all popular movements aiming at the betterment of conditions in the Colony, and on many occasions his utterances have been characterized by an outspokenness which is typical of the man. In connection with the housing problem he has rendered yeoman service, having been Chairman of the Housing Commission, and he has also served as a member of the Kowloon Scheme. As President of the Constitutional Reform Association he has long pleaded for a more representative form of government for the Colony. Sir Henry Pollock has also been a very keen supporter of the European Y. M. C. A., of which he is a Director, and has taken a very lively interest in the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, of which he is President. Sir Henry Pollock was born in 1864 and after being educated at Charterhouse was called to the Bar by the Inner Temple at the age of 23, in November, 1887. He was admitted to practice in Hongkong in 1888 and from September of that year until August of the following he acted as Police Magistrate. In 1892 he was appointed acting Police Judge and continued as such until December of that year. During the plague epidemic of 1894 he rendered signal services to the authorities and in consideration of this he was awarded a gold medal. For nearly three years between 1896 and 1901 he acted as Attorney General. In 1900 he was appointed O.C.

and since the death of the late Mr. J. J. Francis, Q.C., in 1901, he has been the senior practising counsel in the Colony. In January, 1901, he went to the Fiji as Attorney General but left the following April and resigned the appointment two months later, returning to the Colony in October of that year. In 1903-04, he temporarily represented the Chamber of Commerce on the Legislative Council and in 1905 he was elected to represent the Justices of the Peace upon the retirement of Sir Paul Chater, C.M.G. He was reappointed in 1912 and again in 1918 and still represents the J.P.'s on the Council, although at the moment on leave. He acted as a member of the Executive Council in 1911 and was appointed to a seat thereon for five years in 1921. In 1919, he acted as Attorney General, and again recently, during Mr. Kemp's temporary absence, he filled the same position. At one time, Sir Henry was a member of the Sanitary Board, serving from 1903 to 1906, and he was appointed a Justice of the Peace as long ago as 1891. In addition to the other positions mentioned, Sir Henry Pollock is President of the Hongkong branch of the Navy League and of the Chess Club, a past President of St. George's Society, Hon. Secretary of the Old Voluntary Society, a Trustee of the City Hall, was for many years keenly associated with the V.R.C. and a committee member of the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club, is a Life Member of the Court of the Hongkong University and was Chairman of the Peace Celebrations and War Memorial Finance Sub-Committee. He left Hongkong on leave last Thursday by the Empress of Russia, and no doubt news of the honour will reach him during his voyage home. Both to him and to Lady Pollock we extend our congratulations on this most appropriate and deserved honour.

HONOUR FOR MR. J. A. E. BULLOCK

We are officially informed that another Hongkong resident's name has been included in the Birthday Honours List, namely that of Mr. J. A. E. Bullock, M.B.E., D.O.M., who has been appointed to the Imperial Service Order.

Mr. Bullock, who is Chief Clerk to the Colonial Secretary's Office, entered the

WIRELESS IN HONGKONG.

GOVERNMENT TO PERMIT BROADCASTING.

There has been a rumour abroad lately that the Government of Hongkong has come to a definite decision not to allow radio-broadcasting of any description in the Colony, at any future date, owing to the possible interference with naval and commercial stations. This would mean the death of the already long-deferred hopes of local wireless enthusiasts, who would have to depend on whatever they could pick up from the broadcasting stations at Macao or Canton which are to come into full operation ere long.

With a view to ascertaining whether there was any truth in the report, a representative of the Telegraph interviewed Mr. S. B. McElderry, the Assistant Colonial Secretary, and Government representative on the radio enquiry committee, yesterday afternoon. Mr. McElderry gave our representative the welcome assurance that the authorities have come to no decision to prohibit broadcasting permanently.

The whole question had been thoroughly examined in conjunction with the expert specially appointed, and the Government were merely awaiting the instructions of the Secretary of State for the Colonies before making a definite announcement. The licence to broadcast would, of course, have to be a monopoly, as not more than one licensee could be permitted to operate, and the only matter to decide in the future would be the issuing of such licence. For that purpose, the Government would call for tenders, as in the usual granting of exclusive rights to work local services.

"I feel sure," added the Assistant Colonial Secretary, "that within a year there will be miscellaneous broadcasting in operation in the Colony." So the large number of radio enthusiasts here have no need to despair after all.

service of Hongkong in 1906 as Accountant of the Kowloon-Canton Railway. Three years later, he became Second Clerk to the Colonial Secretary and after acting as Chief Clerk for some time he was appointed to his present post in 1914. In 1913, he acted as Secretary of the Sanitary Board and on several occasions he has been acting Clerk to the Councils. He was made a Member of the British Empire Order in 1919.

Mr. Bullock, who was for many years a keen Volunteer, has during his service at the Colonial Secretariat rendered invaluable aid to the Government, being a very conscientious and painstaking worker, and his numerous friends will join with us in congratulating him on this further

The first honours list issued by the Labour Government, on the occasion of H. M. the King's Birthday, contains no surprises. There are no new Peerages, the honours being largely in reward of State and semi-diplomatic services.

In addition to a few outstanding awards there is a long list of appointments in lower grades of the British Empire Order for Home and Overseas services. The Honours include the following:—

Professor F. H. Bradley, the Oxfordian writer on philosophy, who is a Fellow of Merton College, Oxford, a son of the Rev. Charles Bradley, Vicar of Glasbury, and a half-brother of the late Dean of Westminster.

Grand Crosses of the British Empire Order.

Mr. Robert Donald, for public services. Mr. Donald has for many years been associated with prominent newspapers. He was editor of the Daily Chronicle from 1902 to 1918, former managing director of the United Newspapers, Ltd., and a Director of the Ministry of Information during the war.

Field Marshal Lord Plumer, Governor of Malta since 1919. He saw service in the Sudan and South African Wars, and during the Great War he added further to his laurels as Commander of the 2nd Army of the B. E. F. in France.

CHINA'S TRADE MARK LAW.

BOXER FUNDS SUGGESTED AS INDEMNITY.

PREMIER POINTS OUT THE DIFFERENCE.

London, June 2. In the House of Commons, Mr. Samuel suggested the postponement of the second reading of the Chinese Indemnity Bill until the Chinese Government altered the conditions of their trade marks Bill, so as to protect British manufacturers and traders against having trade marks, which they had been using for a number of years, fraudulently taken away.

Mr. MacDonald said it was undesirable to connect the trade marks question with the very different matter of the Chinese Indemnity Bill.

Mr. Samuel asked, had the Premier any list of applications by Chinese, Japanese and German firms for registration of British trade marks, and was it impossible to suspend the Indemnity Bill in order to introduce a Bill whereby money could be applied to compensate British manufacturers and merchants whose trade marks had been taken away.

Mr. MacDonald replied that he thought it would be far more desirable that with regard to the trade marks law we should conduct negotiations on the merits of the case itself, and not mix it up with another act of ours which, he hoped, would be accepted by China as an act of grace rather than as the result of a bargain.

THE DERBY.

A VERY OPEN EVENT.

London, June 2. Everything points to a most interesting Derby, certainly the most open for many years. The consensus of opinion is that anything may win, and jockeys mostly agree to differ. Meanwhile, the Aga Khan's Diophan, which has shown consistently good form and done well in training since winning the Two Thousand Guineas, has been installed favourite. Neither the Aga Khan nor Lord Astor, who are doubly represented, intend making any declaration to win, so that Diophan and Salmon Trout and St. Germans and Bright Knight will run on their merits.

The field includes a couple of French horses, Optimist the Second, and Thunder Cloud the Second. Both have arrived in England.

Archibald rode Knight of the Garter this morning for a couple of six furlong gallops. His Majesty's colt is moving freely and the log is no worse. It has been definitely decided to run the horse on Wednesday. His Majesty will be present at Epsom throughout.

Speaking at a Press Club lunch to-day, Lord Derby said:—"With a field of thirty-one for the Derby and torrential rain falling, I should put the names in a hat, draw out one and back it."

The following alterations have been made in the list of Derby probabilities: Obliterate (T. Burns), Optimist the Second (McGeog), Woodend (Beary), and Bucks Yeoman (—). Skylight (G. Richards), Thunder Cloud (Ealing) and Grand Joy (Ingham) have been added whilst Sant Orb, Cargel, Roggio, Bob Flint, Eaglestone, Gurril, Henri and Shamblow have been scratched.

The Betting. The Derby betting is as follows:—6/1 Diophan, 8/1 Tom Finch, 100/9 San Savino and St. Germans, 100/8 Bright Knight, 18/1 Woodend, 22/1 Hurrer Wood and Salmon Trout, 25/1 Dawson City and Parmonte taken and offered, 33/1 Spalpeen offered, 40/1 Tippler and Optimist the Second taken and offered, 40/1 Polyphonus and Danes offered, 50/1 Knight of the Garter taken and offered, 50/1 Obliterate offered.

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

Its Observance in Hongkong.

SPECTACULAR PARADE ON CRICKET GROUND.

The King's Birthday Parade, held on the Cricket Ground at nine o'clock this morning, was one of the most impressive and spectacular events of its kind ever seen in the Colony. With over 700 men on parade, representing the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, 1st Batt. East Surrey Regiment, Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps, H.K.S. Royal Garrison Artillery and the 2/4th Bombay Grenadiers, together with three military bands, a vast concourse of spectators and His Excellency the Governor and Staff, the event was not only picturesque but decidedly impressive. As the Royal Salute of 21 guns was fired, interspersed with feu-de-joie and the playing of the National Anthem, one felt that Hongkong was very fittingly expressing its loyalty to the King, and that it was by no means an empty demonstration.

Some time before nine o'clock, large numbers began to congregate in the special enclosure, the Cricket Club Pavilion and on the verandahs and roofs of the adjacent buildings. By the time the various units were in position, many hundreds of spectators must have gathered together, including most of Hongkong's leading residents in the enclosure by the Saluting Base. The units on parade, and their

His Excellency the Governor, in ceremonial uniform, arrived on the ground punctually at nine o'clock, being accompanied by Captain Neville, A.D.C., and two Indian A.D.C.'s. A Royal Salute was given, all troops presenting arms whilst the band played the first bars of the National Anthem. His Excellency then inspected the troops, following which a battery of the H.K.S. R.G.A., on the Murray Parade Ground, fired a Royal Salute of 21 guns, each seven being marked by the firing of a feu-de-joie by the troops on the Cricket Ground and the playing of the National Anthem. Following this the troops again gave a Royal Salute, later removing their head dress and giving three rousing cheers for His Majesty the King.

The march past in column was extremely well carried out. His Excellency taking the salute from each detachment. "Hearts of Oak" for the Royal Navy and "A Life on the Ocean Wave" for the Royal Marines gave an appropriate touch to things, the march past of the other units being played by their respective bands and pipers.

It was whilst the march past was in progress that an aeroplane, flown by Mr. Abbott, sailed over the ground, the episode adding to the interest of the occasion.

The various units were then marched, out of the cricket ground to their points of dismissal and the parade, one of the best carried out ever seen here, concluded. His Excellency motored back to Government House, whilst the spectators dispersed, knowing they had fittingly marked the day.

To-Night's Ball. Hundreds of invitations have been issued for to-night's Ball at Government House, the grounds of which have been lavishly decorated and illuminated. Special provisions have been made for regulating the traffic and all those attending the function are requested to bear them in mind.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

London, June 2.

In reference to the reports in the French press that Premier Macdonald had written M. Herriot offering to confer with him at Paris on the international situation and that M. Herriot had replied pointing out that he was not yet entrusted with Cabinet-making, Reuter is informed that it is obvious that both sides desire an early settlement as soon as possible and that it is reasonable to assume that there has been some form of communication regarding a possible meeting between the two statesmen. It is further pointed out that Mr. Macdonald agrees to the suggestion that he meet Mr. Premier Mussolini, but that it is impossible at present for Mr. Macdonald to absent himself from England long enough to go to Switzerland for that purpose. It is not so difficult, however, for him to meet the new French Premier at Paris. —Reuter.

EMIGRATION CONFERENCE.

Rome, June 2.

The Emigration Conference has concluded after adopting practically unanimously the resolutions drafted by the committee, dealing especially with general principles of treaties respecting emigration and colonisation. An important matter determined was the declaration of principle in regard to the legal status of emigrants and conditions governing the residence of workers in foreign countries. The Conference passed a resolution urging states to institute compulsory medical examination of emigrants prior to embarkation. It is decided to hold a second conference in 1927 in one of the immigration countries. —Reuter.

SOUTH AFRICAN POLITICS.

Capetown, June 2.

Several newspapers demand drastic action to prevent disturbances during the political campaign, which have hitherto broken up many South African party meetings, notably at Durban yesterday where General Smuts was unable to get a hearing. He subsequently declared that the "red flag" has come to South Africa and free speech is denied us. This will do more than any speech mine to arouse public realisation of the dangers of party rule. —Reuter.

New York, June 2.

The Italian colony at Brooklyn is excited over the announcement that 700 of their compatriots had arrived on board the steamer Dante Alighieri, but were not allowed to land and would be deported under the recent Supreme Court decision. Two hundred of them originally intended to land at Halifax, but were barred owing to lack of the necessary $1,200 each. —Reuter.

SHANGHAI
TELEPHONES.RATE INCREASE PROPOSED.
(Our Own Correspondent.)

Shanghai, June 2.
Despite the marked increase in the amount of telephone calls, the revenue per line has been steadily falling off and an increase in the company's rates for subscribers is absolutely necessary. The chairman declared in his speech at the annual meeting of the shareholders, his already been made to the municipal council. It is hoped to establish a message rate instead of a monthly rate as soon as the automatic exchanges have been installed. The meeting was presided over by Sir Edward Pearce in the absence of Mr. Cecil Holland on account of illness.

It was announced that the directors intend to invite applications for the remaining 5,644 shares of the Company's nominal capital at a price of Tls. 75 per share. Applications will be confined to shareholders and subscribers. The working account shows an increased revenue of Tls. 125,082. However, increased salaries and expenses reduce this. The net balance transferred to profit and loss is Tls. 418,843, an increase of Tls. 18,601 over last year. The net working profit is considerably less than that of the previous year, showing the necessity of an increase in rates.

CANTON ARSENAL MACHINERY.

THE VENDORS' CASE.

(By James A. Rabbitt to the "Telegraph")

In the Government Communique issued by Mr. Eugene Chen and published in the Hongkong papers of the 31st May, there is so much that is misleading that this statement is issued in order to show the other side of the picture.

Mr. Chen made no mention of the amount of machinery already delivered by the vendors nor the amount of money absorbed, out of the payments made, to meet disbursements for the account of the Government.

The cargo was sold to the Governor of Kwangtung for the sum of U. S. $1,400,544.00 the vendors agreeing to provide engineers for a period of nine months for the purpose of superintending the installation of the plant. Any engineers required after the period of nine months were to be retained at the expense of the Governor.

The cargo duly arrived in Canton and certain portions were paid for and delivery thereof was given. An account dated August 20th, 1921, and signed by the representative of the Governor of Kwangtung shows that cargo to the value of U. S. $428,777.08 was delivered to the Governor.

Owing to the Governor failing to pay for and take delivery of the cargo, a supplemental agreement dated June 15th, 1921, was entered into by which the purchase price should be paid by instalments and the final payment made on the 1st February, 1922. This agreement further provided that interest should be paid on monthly balances due as from the 1st March, 1921.

The Governor further agreed in the supplemental agreement of June 15th, 1921, that possession of the goods should be held by the vendors until the final payment should be made and that all disbursements for godowns, rent, insurance, etc., would be met by the Government.

The goods were placed in the custody of an American Corporation who were the lessees of three godowns at Canton. The Governor failed to comply with the terms of the supplemental agreement and as a result the cargo had to be bonded to secure the payment of duty due to the Chinese Maritime Customs.

Payments on account which barely covered the interest, engineering and other expenses were made from time to time and accounts were rendered to the Governor. Detailed accounts were submitted on the 1st December, 1922, and were certified as correct by the representative of the Governor of Kwangtung.

By June, 1923, the burden of financing the cargo became so great that the vendors pressed the Governor for payment and Dr. Sun stated to me personally that if he could not make a settlement for the balance due within the month of June, that he would abandon the contract. On the strength of this statement the vendors cancelled legal notices to be sent to the Governor of Kwangtung demanding payment within a reasonable time or the contract would be considered as having been abandoned.

During the period covered by the correspondence aforementioned, interviews took place between the vendors and representatives of the Governor, but as the Governor made no payments the vendors were forced to stand on the notices given in the correspondence. The vendors secured legal opinion which assured them that they were justified in offering the cargo for sale elsewhere under unpaid sellers rights.

On the 24th June, 1923 (which approximately was the date of the abandonment of the contract) the vendors submitted a summary of accounts to the Governor of Kwangtung which showed the financial position at that period as follows:

Total payments by Governor $1,203,107.25
From this payment disbursements were made for the account of the Governor and goods were delivered to the Governor amounting to 703,377.00 Leaving a nett balance of receipts of $499,730.25 to meet the total cost

THE LATE MRS. LOGAN.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.

The funeral yesterday of the late Mrs. Logan was a tribute to one of the oldest of Hongkong residents. Mrs. Logan came out here from Glasgow, with her late husband, Mr. James Logan, in 1884. Mr. Logan joined the Kowloon Docks staff, and the couple reared a family of six here, all now grown up. Mr. Logan died in 1922; had he lived he would have completed forty years of residence here this year. Mrs. Logan was 64 years of age, and had won for herself a large number of friends, many of whom attended the funeral yesterday. Two of her sons, Archie, the well-known swimmer, and Colin, are in Hongkong, and they were the chief mourners. With them at the graveside were, among others, Messrs. T. Noyce, D. Gow, D. Steel, D. Keith, A. M. Simpson, A. Nicholson, A. Bolton, W. C. Smith, R. Lapsley, J. McIntosh, J. Gurraway, J. Fisher, H. Scott, E. L. Hodge, J. M. Smyth, W. Hodley, and J. J. Robson. Rev. J. Kirk Macdonald officiated.

The Wreaths: Among the many beautiful wreaths were those from deceased children, James Campbell, Archie, Colin, Thomas, Polly and Annie, also from Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dyer, the Cosmopolitan Dock Clerical Staff, the No. 1 Borden, makers of Kowloon Dock, Hossie, Maize, Mr. H. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Castro, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lapsley, Mr. and Mrs. D. Steel, Mr. G. R. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Biss and family, Ah Choo (No. 1), Carpenter, Ah Kam (No. 1), Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. T. Noyce, Mr. and Mrs. C. Atkinson, Mr. C. E. Stewart, Mrs. E. P. Dunneberg, the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club, Mr. and Mrs. J. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watchell, Miss E. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodley, Mr. C. Bainbridge, Mr. and Mrs. D. Harvey, Mr. L. Holger, Mr. D. Gow, Mr. W. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fisher.

of cargo shipment and other expenses which amount to over $1,200,000.

Thus it will be seen that from the three-fourths of the original cargo (one fourth having been delivered) remaining in the possession of the vendors at the 1st July, 1923, they should receive funds amounting to approximately $700,000 U. S. Gold in order to secure themselves for their total outlay.

Arbitration. Owing to the fact that this machinery was purchased at the top of the post war boom and has lain in godowns in a semi-tropical climate for upwards of three years, its value has depreciated to such an extent that the vendors have not been able to sell it for sufficient to reimburse them for their losses on this transaction.

It would therefore be to their advantage and they would be only too happy should they receive from the Governor what is due under their contract and surrender the cargo. The Governor, however, does not seem inclined to meet his obligations with money.

The vendors have at all times been willing to submit to an accounting even though not legally called upon to do so.

By reason of the evidence submitted to the American Consul General in connection with this matter this official issued notices to be posted on the warehouses containing the cargo in question stating that the cargo is the property of American citizens and that the godowns in which such property is stored is leased to an American corporation, but in order to meet the matter of fairness an offer has been made to submit the matter to arbitration.

Dr. Sun and his representatives have been fully aware of the vendor's intention to remove the cargo from Canton, and have made indirect insinuations that they claim the cargo. The vendors many times requested that a formal claim might be lodged against them by Dr. Sun through the Chinese Maritime Customs or the American Consul General but no such claim has been formulated. Now that a ship has been chartered and labourers commenced to load the ship, Dr. Sun, through his representatives, has threatened violence against American property and has caused an insidious propaganda of intimidation to be spread through the shipping circles of Canton.

BRIBERY CASE.

INDIAN INTERPRETER AS DEFENDANT.

At the Magistracy yesterday afternoon the hearing was resumed of the case in which Nathu Singh, a clerk and interpreter of the Magistracy, was charged on four counts of obtaining $5 and $3.50 by false pretences and bribery.

Mohamed Noor, a clerk and one of the complainants, was recalled for cross-examination. In reply to Mr. Hall Brutton, solicitor for the defence, Noor said he had been dismissed by his late employers, Cassam Ahmed and Co., in consequence of the quarrel on the 12th May, in connection with which the cross-examination was applied for by him on the day he alleged the defendant demanded $5.

Mr. Brutton: The reason you asked the clerk whether stamp fees were payable was because the defendant had refused to take the $5 from you and that you believed that unless stamp fees were paid the summonses would not be issued and served?

Complainant: No. Mr. Brutton questioned the complainant in connection with an alleged meeting at Peddar Street between the defendant and the complainant on the 16th ult., after the latter had lodged a complaint about the bribery. Mr. Brutton suggested that the complainant met his client in the afternoon, while the latter was talking with an Indian Inspector and another Indian, and joined in the conversation, asking the accused if he was angry with him and why he pushed him out of his office at the Magistracy that morning. Defendant replied that the action he took in the morning was on account of the complainant smoking in his office, and that there was no ill-feeling.

The complainant denied the meeting and the conversation. Mr. Brutton: The object of the conversation was that because the defendant had refused to take the money you believed he was going to bring a charge against you for offering a bribe and, therefore, you wanted to ascertain his attitude towards you?—No.

Mr. Brutton: I put it to you that the sole reason you brought this charge was that you were afraid either Sergt. Chevalier or the defendant would charge you with offering a bribe, the former having seen you holding a $5 bill on entering the defendant's office?—No.

The complainant denied the case of the defence that he offered $5 to induce the accused to make out two applications for summonses, and that the defendant declined to accept the money.

Sergeant Chevalier stated that on the afternoon of May 14th he entered the defendant's office. He found Mohamed Noor standing in front of the accused, with a bank note in his right hand. He overheard the defendant making a remark to the effect that money should not be paid then. The next day he went to Cassam Ahmed and Co. and asked Mohamed Noor, to see him on Thursday morning, which the latter did. After questioning the Indian he took him to see Mr. Lindsay, the Magistrate.

Mr. Lin Shau-ping, a clerk at the Magistracy, testified to the defendant taking the summonses, applied for by Mohamed Noor, for a date to be fixed for the hearing. After the defendant had left, the complainant asked him if any fee was payable.

This closed the evidence for the prosecution. Defendant was remanded until Wednesday afternoon.

THE KING.

We read the reminiscences ance of a man who had campaigned in many places of this globe, and in most of the out-of-the-way parts of the Empire, and he stated that the years of sojourn in the Imperial outposts had made him a greater patriot than ever he had thought possible. Isolated sometimes with a few score of his race amongst thousands of a subject population, the references to Home, the King, and the Empire, which they represented, took on a new significance. It is the same here, though few of us perhaps make any note of the fact. When a patron saint's day comes round, it is observed with a fervour entirely due to the spirit of comradeship amongst temporary exiles, and in the Colonies, especially the more remote tropical possessions, we have known Empire Day take on the features of a big national festival.
The same applies to the birthdays of members of our Royal family, especially of H.M. the King. We have dressed ships, a holiday mood, a parade of units representing the forces upholding the dignity and might of the Imperial confederation, salutes of guns, and over all a remembrance of the reason for it—it is the symbol of our loyalty to the State, a loyalty born of the patriotism which animates even the most humble of us citizens, of whatever race or creed, of the far-flung British realms.

H.M. King George the Fifth is fifty-nine years of age to-day, and we trust that he will not only see many more birthdays but also that they will each find the Empire over which he rules nearer to the goal of peace and prosperity for which his Ministers are continuously trying. In these days of Parliamentary Government pure and simple, the personal direction of a monarch is to some extent lacking, but individually can never be entirely submerged, and personality must make itself felt in the national councils. Thus we have in the King a sovereign of marked popularity, and one who has on various occasions given proof of his distinct ability. It would not be in any way a left-handed compliment, we hope, to state that King George is most favourably known as the father of that young gentleman of abounding popularity, the Prince of Wales.

Father and son, they represent the nucleus of our constitutional form of government, where freedom and incorruptible justice are made the fountainhead of our existence as citizens of the Empire. While such conditions last we can afford to scorn the talk of revolutionaries and other enemies of the State, whose greatest grievance must be their hopelessly insignificant influence on the wheels of Britain's destiny. So, gentlemen, the King!

The Wanchai Monument.

Having on more than one occasion drawn attention to the filthy condition of the Wanchai Monument site, littered as it had been for many months with all manner of rubbish, we should like to express our gratitude to the British and American bluejackets, who, impatient at official inaction, took matters into their own hands and thoroughly cleaned the place up on a recent night.
We were as surprised as anyone on hearing the news, but we were gladly none the less. Seemingly the idea had been in the minds of those naval men for some time, as they had at first intended to carry out the work on Empire Day. As it was, they could not well have chosen a better occasion than Decoration Day, seeing that the monument stands to the memory of American as well as British marines. This act of theirs will long be remembered as typical of men who think more of deeds than words. But there is an even greater significance in the incident than the mere act itself. We refer to the spontaneous co-operation of British sailors with their American comrades. A common interest brought them together, and by their deed they have in some degree helped to cement the friendship between the naval men of the two countries. In times past there has, unhappily, been friction between the British and American bluejackets. This united act on their part should go a long way towards dissipating any misunderstandings. Indeed, we regard this aspect of the incident as of paramount importance, and we believe it will mark the beginning of a new and an even closer friendship between the men of the British and United States navies in this part of the world.

Routing Out the Pirates.

The story which we published yesterday of the execution of two pirates concerned in local outrages serves to illustrate the fact that, once guilt is brought home to this class of criminal, the Chinese authorities are not slow to act. A good deal could be told regarding the splendid work of our Criminal Investigation Department in routing out suspected pirates, were it not the fact that silence at the moment is the wisest policy. But sufficient is known to warrant the view that the most searching enquiries have been, and are still being, conducted. These have proved far more fruitful than had been hoped, considering the extreme difficulty in getting in touch with the bandit gangs, and there is reason to believe that more than one nest of these birds has been scattered.
Those results, of course, have only been made possible through the co-operation of the Chinese authorities—a fact which we gladly acknowledge. We want to see more of such co-operation, because it is evident that only by such means can those who commit piracies and make off to Chinese territory be brought to book. Such unified effort is also most desirable in the matter of piracy prevention, and we hope to see it extended in the near future, with mutually beneficial results both to this Colony and to the adjacent province.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph.")

Railway Fencing.

Sir,—Can anybody who sees what the Railway is doing at Kowloon believe in the word "economy" as applied by Government departments? Absolutely sound iron fencing, merely in need of a new coat of paint, is being uprooted and replaced by new fencing of the same type.
Why this thuggery? Is it Spending Government? Is it has attacked somebody or is it a competition in fencing? If the former it is a great success, if the latter it is a failure.
Yours, etc.

Hongkong, June 2.

DAY BY DAY.

IT IS A GOOD RULE TO BLAME IN PRIVATE, AND PRAISE IN PUBLIC.—Lord Archibald.

The Harbour Master notifies mariners that Shanghai has declared Canton to be plague infected and vessels from that port are ordered to stop outside Woosung for medical inspection.

The rainfall for May, as recorded at the Botanic Gardens, amounted to 15.97 inches. Rain fell on eleven successive days—from the 14th to the 24th—the highest in one day being 6.49 inches on the 22nd.

The usual weekly Meeting of the Hongkong Lodge of the Theosophical Society will be held on Wednesday, June 4th, at 5.45 p.m., at the Lodge, 16, Queen's Rd. Central. Subject:—
"Sowing and Reaping." All are welcome. Advt.

Whilst left unattended in Caine Road, a motor truck, heavily laden with cement, ran down a slope and was brought up sharp against a wall on one side of the roadway. Fortunately no one was in the way. The front wheels of the vehicle were damaged.

News have been received that M. Beauvais, for nearly twenty years French Consul General at Canton, has died in France.
He only recently left the Far East on retirement. The news will be received with deep regret by his many friends in Canton and in this Colony.

A report, as yet unconfirmed, was received this morning to the effect that a motor car in endeavouring to avoid two small boys in Caine Road ran into a wall, at 9.30 last night. The petrol tank exploded, killing one of the boys, who was caught between the wheels, and injured the other.

A mishap occurred on the Praya East to a taxi-cab early this morning. The machine came to grief over the drainage channel between the Praya and the reclamation and, when last seen, at 8 o'clock, workmen were engaged in pulling it back to the roadway. The front part of the machine had dropped into the channel.

M. HERRIOT'S POLICY.

FAVOURS RUSSIAN RECOGNITION.

Would Suppress Vatican
Embassy.

Paris, June 2.
A striking programme is outlined by M. Herriot.
In a letter the leader of the Socialist party embraces the immediate suppression of the decree laws, the re-establishment of the match monopoly, both of which were passed by the Poincare Government, also a general amnesty except for evaders of military service and traitors. He further proposes the suppression of the Embassy at the Vatican, the application of the law regarding religious congregations, and a reduction of military service by the organisation of the nation for defensive purpose.

M. Herriot, after describing his fiscal proposals and pro-labour tendencies, says he favours the strengthening and extending of the role of the League of Nations, the Hague Tribunal, and the International Labour Office, a resumption of normal relations with Russia and unconditionally accepts the Dawes report.

Notwithstanding his party's opposition over the Ruhr policy in the past, M. Herriot does not believe in the possibility at present of evacuating the Ruhr before the safeguards laid down therein be enforced and an international regime be established.—Reuter.

TWO-MINUTE TALKS A Daily Tonic By ROBERT POWER

AIMLESS.

There is nothing more pathetic than the spectacle of the drollet at sea. No longer answering the helm, deserted by its crew, the vessel is at the mercy of wind and wave. Now it is driven in one direction; then it heads in another.
In its erratic course it may crash into another ship and cause disaster.

Life can well be compared to an ocean over which we are sailing, The cynic may say that none the less we are tending, but they prove know without we are tending. But though Reason falter and finds no definite answer to the gibe of the unbeliever, Faith looks forward and trusts in Divine purpose.
Hope supports the soul in a belief that our life's voyage is towards some haven of rest and corsolation.

We cannot escape the conclusion that there are those who meet in life who are aimless. Those are the drifters, who like Mr.
Micawber are always waiting for "something to turn up." Their affairs are in confusion, but they have an expectation that some favourable wind of good fortune will waft them to "better times." Things are stagnant, but this does not distress those who have a conviction that they are on the eve of the coming of a wave of prosperity which will lift them from poverty to riches. The force tragedy is that the years slip by and they are still waiting for the fiffl winds and waves to drive them forward to the harbour.

There are others who are aimless, but in a different fashion.
Like a man unskilled in navigation, they first set their course this way and then that. Now they are keen on taking up a new business enterprise which has captivated their imagination. Before it can be well "tried out" the idea has lost its brilliance and another has loomed in sight. Then again the course is changed and all sail crowded on to lose no time in reaching these Fortunate Isles.

But alas! the Isles prove but a mirage, and so once more the ship is set upon a fresh course.
These aimless persons are not always devoid of energy. When the "grand idea" seizes them, they prove demons of driving purpose. But there is no persistence of purpose. Perhaps after years of restless planning and feverish working they look back upon their course and they find it has been a series of aimless wandering to and fro.

The mariner steers a fixed course. He knows his destination and it is his business to get there by the shortest and safest route.
What would be thought of the captain who said: "Yes, I have to steer this ship from Liverpool to New York. I know the route, but I should like to have a change and go to South Africa instead!"

The aimless person is a wanderer. By some unexpected stroke they may reach their destination. Far more likely they will not. Energy will have been dissipated, as much driving force as was needed to carry them straight to the goal reach by those they envy as the "lucky fellows" of life. But like the bowed-down traveller who, losing the road, journeys in a circle and at last reaches the spot he started from, the aimless find that after all their years of effort they are still without a definite place in life and hardly started on the road leading to Success.

MR. ABBOTT'S PERSEVERANCE.

REPAIRS MACHINE IN TIME FOR STUNTS.

Mr. H. Abbott's perseverance enabled him to make two further practice flights yesterday evening, after working all the previous night and the greater part of the day on effecting repairs after Sunday morning's smash. In his second flight yesterday, he took up with him Mr. de la Sala, a devoted assistant who has worked on the machine since the early days when it came out of the godown where it had been lying, a wreck, for more than two years.
The machine flew fairly low, and handbills printed in Chinese announcing the "stunts" for 3.30 this afternoon, over Happy Valley, were dropped overboard.

Several further flights were made this morning, one being over Hongkong whilst the King's Birthday parade was in progress, and more handbills were distributed from the air. The first time, Mr. C. Earnshaw was a passenger; and when flying over Hongkong later Mr. Abbott had Mr. R. Earnshaw with him. During this second flight, the airman created a mild sensation by banking steeply and then nose-diving, when over Statue Square, descending from about 1,500 feet to within a few hundred feet of the ground.

Should Mr. Abbott have been unable to secure the aid of a pilot for this afternoon, he intended piloting the machine himself, and Mrs. Abbott was to jump overboard in a parachute, from a height of about 2,000 feet. However, the services have now been secured of Mr. Lim On, the Canadian-trained Chinese airman who made several successful flights in this very machine, a Curtiss biplane, some three years ago, but had the misfortune to make a bad landing at Happy Valley after falling into an air pocket.
This forced landing, when the plane crashed into a tree, put the machine out of commission until the time of its recent purchase by Mr. Abbott.

Prior to the exhibition this afternoon, Mrs. Abbott will go up as a passenger, and scatter flowers from the air in memory of the late Mr. Colwell, an American aviator who died in Hongkong, and who was a colleague of her husband's.

NEW FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMPION.

London, June 2nd.
At Holland Park Hall, for the featherweight championship of Britain, George McKenzie (Leith) out-pointed Harry Leach (Doncaster).
Leach, who is only eighteen, was faster than McKenzie in the early rounds and got home several lightning right leads.
For a time he outboxed his opponent and at the halfway stage led well on points.
Thereafter, the Scotsman improved, frequently landing left jabs and hooks to the head and body. In the last few rounds Leach tired and McKenzie was fighting hard to end the fight.
He won narrowly.—Reuter.

UNSUCCESSFUL ROBBERY.

SMART POLICE WORK.

Before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistracy, yesterday afternoon, a Northern Chinese was charged with committing a robbery with violence, with others not in custody, at No. 33 Portland Street, his master's residence, and taking money, clothes and jewellery to the value of $1,650.

Outlining the case Detective Inspector T. Murphy said that the prosecutor, an ex-military officer of Canton, his wife, mother, a maid servant and the cook lived on the first floor of No. 33 Portland Street. They occupied the whole floor, which contained two cubicles and a front room. Defendant who had been working as cook for a few months occupied a bed-room on the veranda. All the inmates were Shanghai people.

About 2 p.m. on the 20th May the man, his wife and the maid servant went to Hongkong, leaving the cook and his old mother at home. Defendant went into the rear cubicle, occupied by the old woman, with two pieces of blue stone, telling her that he had some medicine for her eyes. He approached her and rubbed the stones into her eyes. He then proceeded to tie her hands and gag her mouth after which he left the cubicle and locked the door. A few minutes later the woman heard voices in the front room and the sound of boxes being opened and shut. At about 5 p.m. the other occupants returned and found the door at the stairs locked. They forced it open and on going inside discovered that the old woman's door was also locked.

After releasing her they proceeded to the front room which they found in a disorderly state. A drawer had been rummaged and some boxes were missing.

A neighbour saw defendant leaving the place with two coolies who were carrying a wooden box and two leather bags. At ten o'clock that night the police with the complainant went on board the Shanghai, which had been detained. On board, one of the detectives saw defendant acting in a suspicious manner. He was arrested and taken to the complainant who identified him as his cook. All the boxes were found under a bunk in the cargo hold. Evidence corroborating the outline was taken after which the case was adjourned.

POINTS OF VIEW.

TO-DAY'S MISCELLANY.

It has been supposed in some quarters that the Imperial War Museum would bore the generation which fought the war. This appears to be a mistake. No fewer than 140,000 large photographs of the exhibits have been sold, ranging in price from 1s. 6d. to 10s. each. As for the exhibits themselves, they are now in a state of seclusion. Since they were transferred from the Crystal Palace to the Science Museum Galleries they have not been publicly available. The two galleries which were allotted to the exhibits have proved inadequate for their accommodation, with the result that they are stored rather than displayed. Numerous visitors have called to see the museum, only to go away disappointed.

Affirming their conviction that the State Medical Service should take the place of the Poor Law, and that the stigma of pauperism should be eliminated, the National Medical Union and the Scottish Medical Guild have issued a joint elaboration of their arguments. The two organisations are representative of many non-panel doctors, and the class for whom they contend the State Medical Service should be instituted is that which as a whole comes under the Poor Law, with the mass of slightly skilled and untrained workers and others dependent on them. This class, it is contended, is so large in populous districts that it would require a whole-time service. Salaries would be paid and many medical men and women would adopt the service as their life work.

Mary Garden has astonished the country by taking out her first naturalisation papers, says a New York message. Few of the millions who have heard her sing had any idea that she was not American born. Always she has been proclaimed as the "great American singer." But now, at the Naturalisation Bureau here, Miss Garden, in making her application (and incidentally admitting that she is 47 years old), states that she was born at Aberdeen, Scotland, went to America in 1883 from Glasgow on the liner Anchoria, is 5ft. 5in. tall, weighs 120lbs., and is not married (though rumour has it that she soon will be). Two more years must elapse before she can become a full citizeness. But meanwhile Miss Garden—she is not to go abroad again—will not be subjected to the disagreeable surprises and handicaps of the immigration quota laws.

Two centuries ago the German philosopher, Immanuel Kant, was born at Konigsberg. North of the Tweed, folk still remind us that the great thinker was only German by accident, his grandfather being a Scot. For 30 years at a stretch he responded with alacrity to his manservant's call at 5 a.m., and his only regular meal was a midday dinner, which he took at various restaurants to avoid the gaze of admiring or wondering crowds. A little, nervous, delicate and deformed man, and a lifelong bachelor, he lived till nearly 80 without a serious illness.

ACHIEVEMENTS OF PIONEERS.

Impression of A Colonial.

One hundred years ago the vision of the Antipodes became so vivid to the Britons that some of them set out in their tall-masted ships to find adventure and fortune in Australia and New Zealand. The two countries, still alive with the drama of cannibalism and inter-tribal war, were asleep as far as the rest of the world was concerned, writing a New Zealand in a home paper. A few missionaries had zealously landed there, but had ended ignominiously in the stew-pot. And then the colonising genius of the British broke down the barrier of native resentment. The pioneer of three generations ago cut himself a rude hut from the pagan forest. He dug the earth and produced his harvest, and at night he sat in front of his hut, with his rifle, lest the natives should venture beyond the edge of the bush and mutilate the crops, the home and even his wife and children. That is very long ago—as Colonial history goes. For almost a hundred years they have been working. Cities have grown where pagan chiefs strutted long ago. The eternal silence of the dripping forest has trembled before the tune of the axe-man. The rivers that know only the high carved prow of war canoes have settled down to carrying produce-laden barges on their bosoms. For three generations these pioneers have worked and they have delivered Australia, Canada, Africa and New Zealand from the clouds of native ignorance.

At Wembley, where the British Empire Exhibition is being held, the sun rises over a hundred towers and domes. One hundred years ago Britons set out to build timber huts in the new world. Now they have come hither to build pavilions. At Wembley to show Britain what they have done with the talents which they set out on that first journey.

On Sunday morning, I saw Wembley: I saw the fairy minarets of India trembling against the blue sky. I saw the domes bathing themselves in amber sunshine. I saw the bamboos growing out of the mud, the Australian pavilion white and tremendous in the sunlight. Canada, Africa, India, Malaya, Hong Kong and New Zealand were there, come home to prove the story of their achievement. During all those hundred years these pioneers have been wooing rich harvests from the soil, seeing tall, slim trees grow, then bend their boughs to the earth with their scarlet and golden crops. They have dug deep into the darkness of the earth and have found gold, and have released the flocks and herds upon the plains, and have seen them grow until they were fit to kill and send across the world to the Englishman's plate.

And now, the world of Colonies comes home to Wembley, to tell you, in exhibition, what you have read in print. The northern hemisphere will admit, like that other parent, that the sons she sent forth with five talents have done well, and have increased them beyond measure.

THIS BRITISH PLANTER In Far-Away Kedah Tells His Experience With BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

From Jirah, in the Street of Kedah, on the west coast of the Malay Peninsula, Mr. M. D. Ross, merchant and planter, writes:—"I have pleasure in informing you that the Baby's Own Tablets sent to me some time ago are undoubtedly a good medicine for babies, keeping the bowels regular and the little ones healthy and strong. I write this from my own experience."

Parents in many other parts of the world are constantly reporting precisely the same thing as does Mr. Ross—they have found Baby's Own Tablets to be all that is claimed for them, a splendid remedy for the ailments of infants and young children. Medicines for adults are usually too strong for the little ones. Baby's Own Tablets have been designed to exactly meet their needs, and are an absolutely safe remedy for infantile indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, vomiting, teething troubles, cramp and colds. They quickly reduce fever, expel worms, soothe the nerves, bring restful, health-restoring sleep in a perfectly natural way. Chemists sell them, or post free, 60 cents the vial from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kingston Road, Shanghai.

READ HIS EPITAPH.

It is a rare occurrence for a man to come down to breakfast to read his own obituary in the newspaper. What, then, must have been the feelings of Mr. Ross Sogliotti, when, on visiting, after nine or ten years, a battle ground and military cemetery at Rambovillers, in the Vosges, he discovered his own tombstone, surrounded by a white cross, and bearing his name and number, together with that of his old regiment—the 121st Infantry—among those who fell with him in 1914? He had been severely wounded in the fighting, but had eventually recovered. He is now in receipt of a pension as being permanently disabled. M. Sogliotti has reported the matter to the military authorities, and has requested to be allowed to live a little longer.

TERRIBLE CRIME.

Eight People Murdered for a Woman.

Taikoo Shui, May 30.

One of the most revolting crimes ever committed in Shansi took place near Kihien, Shui, a short time ago, writes the Taikoo (Shansi) correspondent of the North China Daily News. A party of beggars from Honan took up their abode in an old temple in the south suburb of that city. The party consisted of a man named Li Wen, his mother and his niece, two brothers named Su Erh and Su San and their wives, five children and two dogs.

While living in this temple Li Wen began to have illicit relations with the wife of Su Erh. Suddenly the entire party disappeared, but no thought was given to their disappearance until one day one of the two dogs accompanying the party came out of the temple with the limb of a child in its jaws. That led to the gruesome discovery of the bodies of the five children and Su San and his wife hidden in the earthen "kangs" (platform beds) of the temple. Through the clever work of a member of the Kihien police the murderer was apprehended and he confessed the crime. The details were as follows:

On the night before the party disappeared from the temple

Li Wen having had some fears of Su Erh when his illicit relations with the latter's wife were discovered, lurched

Su Erh to a desolate spot near the northwest corner of the city and there beat him to death with a club. The body was thrown into an unused well near by. Returning to the temple in the south suburb Li Wen then brained Su San and his wife and the five children and one of the dogs, using the same bludgeon. The clothing was stripped from their corpses and with the dead body of the dog was thrown into a well in the temple compound. The bodies of the seven victims were then hidden in the earthen platforms used as beds.

With Su Erh's wife and his mother and niece the murderer then moved off down the great post-road toward the south-west. His job was not quite complete in that one of the two dogs escaped him, and this afterwards led to the discovery of the crime, as above related.

Naturally, the whole countryside was considerably aroused when the news of this crime was spread abroad. A member of the Kihien police force had been visiting his home in Pingyao, Shui. Returning to Kihien he met on the road a party of beggars and noticed from their speech that they were Honanese. After returning to Kihien he reported the incident and the party was followed and taken into custody.
